REFLECTION

In todays gospel , we hear how Jesus calmed a great storm, as he and his terrified disciples were crossing the Lake of Galilee. Perhaps we, at this time in our own lives or in our society , are experiencing some kind of fear or anxiety. We badly need the peace of Jesus.

Maybe we see some threats looming on our horizon. We have little or no control over the politics and social developments. We have little or no control over what other people are doing. But no matter what we are experiencing, we can, with the help of Jesus - find peace. It is the peace which only he can give, and it is a peace which no person, and no thing, can take away from us.

Psalm:

O give thanks to the Lord,
for his love endures for ever.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!
A great prophet has appeared among us;
God has visited his people.
Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon:

The eyes of all look to you, Lord,
and give them their food in due season.

Next Week s Readings:

First Reading A reading from the Acts of the Apostles 12:1-11
Psalm 33:2-9.Rv5
Second Reading A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy 4:6-8.17-18
Gospel Matthew 16:13-19

Dear Lord,

You are the one who knows how absolutely special fathers are.
You made them that way.

Lord, help children to delight this day in being with their dads,
May they make precious memories flow,
and bring laughter,
and new love and appreciation.

For the father who is parenting alone,
strengthen him with your love.

For those whose father is already with You,
Tell him we love and miss him Lord,
and tell him it's from his children.

Amen
