

*Jesus, Bread of life, Servant and Lord:
before your Passion and Death,
you gathered your disciples in the Upper room,
you spent time with them, and celebrated the Last Supper.*

You washed their feet,
You broke the bread,
You shared the wine.
You said, "Do this in memory of me."

*You gathered them together to let them know how much you loved them, to show them how you kneel and serve,
and told them that they must do the same.
You said that you would soon be leaving,
but that your Spirit would be with them always.

*Today, you gather us, your disciples of the 21st century:
you show us how much you love us,
you remind us that you came as Servant,
and that we are called to be servants, too.*

Help us to recognise you in the joys and sorrows of our lives, and in the lives of others.

Help us to be more like you,
when we meet you in each other,
in those we serve,
and in the breaking of the bread.

Amen.
