When the Son of Man comes in all his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people from one another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats., and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left.

Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.'

Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?

And the king will answer them, 'Truly, I tell you, when you did it to one of the least of my brothers and sisters, you did it to me...'

...And who is my neighbour? Jesus replied. ' A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers who stripped him, beat him...left him half dead. ...a priest was going down that road – when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. Likewise a Levite saw him...and passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan came near him...and was moved with pity. He went to him, bandaged his wounds...put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, took care of him...gave money to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him...I will repay you whatever more you spend.' 'Which of these do you think was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?' The lawyer answered,' The one who showed him mercy.' Jesus said, Go and do likewise. Luke 10:25-37

Jesus got up from the table...tied a towel around his waist...poured some water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel...

After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe and returned to table, he said to them. 'Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord – and you are right, for that is what I am. So, if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also, ought to wash one another's feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done to you.' John 13: 3-4, 12-15
