REFLECTION

On this Feast of the Holy Trinity, we celebrate God as a loving and compassionate Father. He is the creator, and the giver of life. Everything good comes from him. He is the Father of truth, love and compassion. The whole of our world is only a faint indication of what He really is.

We see God as Son, who came to live amongst us, and whom we humans killed. We see something of the nature of God, as Jesus heals the sick and the sinful. We see Him rejected by those He loves. Though He is God, He empties Himself of all human dignity, and opens for us the way to true dignity and unending life. We see God as Spirit. All the good we do is the work of God's Spirit, working in, and through us. Wherever there is genuine loving, there is the Spirit of God at work.

We are called to be, and to grow into, the image of God. For this we need the creative power of the Father, the compassion of the Son, and the indwelling of the Spirit. They are all available to those who open their hearts to receive.

PSALM

To you glory and praise for evermore.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
the God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Since you are children of God,
God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son,
the Spirit who cries out: Abba, Father.
